

Understanding the World through Adhesive Tapes

The seminar is an exploration of our world, starting with an introduction to adhesive tape applications followed by a brief survey of the major natural resources required for creating these products, process for selecting potential markets and finally deliveries to these markets, all from a global perspective that is based on common sense.